

SCOTTISH RESPIRATORY NURSE FORUM

Location: Leonardo Hotel, Clermiston Road, Edinburgh and online

Date: 3rd & 4th November 2023

www.srnf.org.uk

Saturday Nov 4th, Day 2 programme (subject to changes)

9am	Welcome from SRNF Vice chairperson Kim Turnbull, Respiratory Nurse Specialist, NHS Lothian
9.05am	Breath Cycle II – A brief introduction to our online singing programme for people living with Long COVID and other respiratory conditions. David Douglas & Karen MacIver, Scottish Opera
9.25am	Spotlight on Action for Pulmonary Fibrosis Alison Stewart, Regional Support Coordinator APF, Scotland
9.35am	Growing our future respiratory workforce and developing our present Colette Henderson, Lecturer, University of Dundee, Programme Lead MSc Advanced Practice, Chair of Scottish Advanced Practice Educators Network
10am	Break - Exhibition and Refreshments
10.20am	Poster presentations - 3 mins each

10.40am	Fighting for Clean Air: ALUK Scotland campaigns for cleaner air Gareth Brown, Policy and Public Affairs Officer Scotland , Asthma & Lung UK
10.50am	NTM and the microbiome Professor Tom Fardon, Respiratory Consultant Physician, Clinical Lead for National Respiratory Action Plan
11.30am	Parallel workshops 15 min each 1 - Breath Control for Singing David Douglas & Karen MacIver, Scottish Opera 2 - Respiratory assessment skills Amber Kennedy, Advanced Nurse Practitioner, NHS Lothian 3 - Cough in ILD Catherine Bamlett and Jemma Stuart, ILD Specialist Nurses, NHS Grampian
12.30pm	Winner of the Kelly Mackay Poster prize presentation
12.45pm	Closing of conference
1pm-1.30pm	SRNF AGM –new members welcome - soup and sandwich lunch available

SRNF is grateful to the companies represented here for their generous sponsorship of this conference. They have had no input to the programme. They will be exhibiting at the conference.

